

1940

JANUARY SENIOR CLASS, UPON GRADUATING, WILLS VALUABLE POSSESSIONS TO UNDER GRADUATES

I, Myrtle Anderson, will my fraternity pin to the lower class girls, as I'll be with my better half in just a short while.

Olive Barnes, leave my unwillingness to make recitations in class to all other bold souls like me.

Ben (Cougar) Bay, leave all my absent days to the sophomore boys, and am heading for the wide open spaces, where I can shoot all the bears and tigers I please.

Esther Bergstrom, leave my strong, penetrating voice to Mr. Thompson, so he can keep better order in his chemistry class.

Rose Brunner, leave my engaging smile to Doris Osmus to supplement her winning smile.

George Derum, will definitely not leave Ardis, because while in body I may be far away, my soul is ever near. Poetis, eh?

Jack DeSassie, leave all the energetic, but somewhat erratic activities I've engaged in to the next reckless, dashing Romeo that comes along.

Dorothy Duoss, leave to usher men down the aisle. Only single men of course. (I mean the aisles of the Liberty Theater.)

Kathleen Erp, leave my tall stately figure for Elaine Mark to envy.

Harold Fitcha, leave my clean basketball tactics to all the sophomores. It breeds good sportsmanship, you know.

Donald Foote, will my gridiron strategy to future teams. That'll help them plenty.

Eddie Friedman, leave to make an addition to the egg family. Some yoke, eh?

Gordon Grimberg, will my jovial nature and my nickname "Gonna" to all Gordons coming after me.

Alice Gustafson, will my "Rose of Washington Square" ways and my commercial ability to Edna Land.

Heiberg Hansen, will my excuses for speeding to the driving class.

Dorothy Hartman, will my dirty saddles to anyone who has time to clean them. (That means someone with a year's vacation.)

Ruth Hauru, will my quiet ways to Mary Louise L'Amie.

Donald Hughes, will my sister to the care of Clyde Johnson. God bless him.

Myrtle Jensen, will my love of talking to Joe E. Brown. (He can talk exactly twice as much then.)

Myrtle Johansen, will my wifely position to some other girl who does waste time.

Nancy Kinney, will my daydreams to Allen Saiget. (He's so inactive, you know.)

Victor Laine, will my gentleman-like manners to the Jasper twins.

Einard Lovvold, leave to watch the very finest of tuna abounding in the blue waters of the sparkling Pacific.

Benny Larson, will my sleek black hair to Arvo Juola.

Phillip Lindberg, leave to become a future oil magnate. A mighty oak out of an acorn grows, you know.

Helen Land, will my numerous lost articles to the lost and found department. (They'll have to add another section to accommodate it.)

Rodney Miller, will the confident way in which I walk to Madeline Davis.

Annabel Nilsen, will my double jointed knees to Gordon Hutchens.

Marian Olson, will my pretty eyes to all the girls who don't graduate - not that they need them but anyhow it's a gallant gesture.

Wilton Paulsen, will have to leave Violet. I can't take her with me.

Gloria Pearson, will my cheerfulness to anyone who needs it, just after report cards have been handed out.

Arvo Peltola, just leave period. Gosh, it's grand to be free!

Gilbert Pitkanen, am going with Arvo. "Oh, I only want a buddy not a sweetheart."

Elvi Ranta, leave my ability for making clam chowder to the students who ran the hotdog room.

Sybil Roman, leave my bright colored, underslung petticoats it cheer up room 7 till they have better lighting there.

Nancy Roos, leave my various hair-dos to all the girls.

Eldred Roth, leave my sister for all the sophomore boys to fight over (may the best man win.)

Allen Rytala, leave my nickname, Ritz, to the crackercorporation.

Ted Salomonson, leave my dancing ability to the "A" club neophytes.
 Martin Severson, leave my vocal cords for Miss Ogden to tune.
 George Sjolund, leave my contagious smile to any gloomy person who really needs cheering up.
 Polly Sweet, will my model A to anyone who can manipulate its various gadgets as I can.
 Lorene Thornberry, don't exactly like to go, but, you know, "there comes a time in every young woman's life" when she just has to graduate.
 Leonard Vernon, leave to meditate on some of my own original theories.
 Richard Weller, will my shyness to my good friend Check Woodfield.
 Reino Wirkkala, will my various nicknames to Aerevole Easapass.
 Georgia Zankich, leave, I'll condescend so much as to promise I'll come back every once in a while.
 Betty Lynn Gosnell, leave my chewing gum in the same wrapper I've used all through high school.

MAY SENIORS' WILL LEAVES UNDERCLASSMEN VARIED LEGACY, 1940

Helen Hendrickson, will my typing ability to any "hunt and pecker."

Margit Hendricksen, leave undecided as to whom I shall choose.

Melvin Hjorten, bequeath my ability to play football to my younger brother.

James Hope, leave my nickname "Junior" behind, I hope.

Margaret Hunsinger, leave without Al, but that doesn't mean I won't wait for him.

Melvin Iverson, will my general popularity to an unknown sophomore.

William Jalonen, leave my "jitterbuging" to Kenneth Moore.

Anne Jamme, leave my vague wanderings in my elaborate discourses to Kenry Ginn.

Sylvia Jerijarvi, leave to transfer my affections to Pillar Rock.

Helen Johansen, leave to take up household duties in the near future.

Alice Johns, will my giggling Gertie ways to Adele Anderson.

Florence Johnson, will my efficiency to a bewildered bookkeeping student.

Arvo Juola, will my ability to keep my musical talent a secret to some other timid violinist. Now that it has been discovered, I leave in haste.

Kathryn Kelley, bequeath my fame as a bowler to the many beginners that come down to the bowling alley.

Charline Kipste, leave my note-writing ability to anyone who has as much news for her friends.

Grace Klausen, will my hearty laugh to Lizzy Fitcha-then she can be named champion laugher of the school.

Betty Kleger, take my car with me when I leave.

Eugene Knutsen, leave my arguments with the referees at basketball games to Donald Hoff.

Helen Kokko, leave my quiet nature to those students who sit under the balcony at assemblies.

Arthur Koski, will my numerous important positions to anyone who has the courage to take them over.

Melvin Lahti, will my technique in maneuvering my Model "A" Ford around town to others fortunate enough to own a Model "A".

Kenneth Lampi, leave my modern farming methods to someone brave enough to try them.

Carl Larson, leave my silent ways to the hot dog room committees.

Jeanne Larson, will my like for old-fashioned dances at the Jockey club to any of these modern jitterbugs.

Joan Larson, leave this institution so I can spend more time with my "Daddy."

Bryson Lausch, will my love of mischief to someone else who likes to pester the teachers.

Tommy Layman, will my small fortune now intact in pin ball machines to the athletic fund.

Donald Link, leave my large appetite which bothers me in the library.

Florence Longtain, leave my younger sisters to carry on the name of Longtain.

Toivo Loukkula, desert a crowd of admiring autograph hunters who are three deep every year when the Zephyrus comes out.

Warren Lovell, will to Butch Morgan the ability to skate on the edge of the law.

Virginia Mack, will my good friendships to no one.

Margaret Mannison, will Sybil Ness, My sweet and demure disposition.

Marthann Marxen, will to Noanie Morrison, my red hair and freckles.

Ted Merydith, will to Elman Peterson my limosine in place of his jalopy.

Ken Thompson, will my "cave man" stuff to Wesley Shaner.
Irma Uhrbrand, leave my love of musical instruments to the Esquires.
Anna Wahlstrom, will my tales of exciting adventure to Alice Ervasti to retell.
Margery Warila, leave a trail of pots and pans which I like to lick but hate to wash.
Margery Waterhouse, leave heart-whole and fancy-free to Seaside.
Ken Weaver, leave several ruined cigars to next banqueteers to learn how to light.
Marge White, do not leave my gorgeous red hair so that I can continue to wear green.
Dorothy Wisbeck, leave my talents as a jitterbug and talker (which often lead me into difficulties) to Scotty Cherry.
Byron Wong, will my artistic talents to candid camera fans.
Chuck Woodfield bequeath the girls, I leave behind to the most enterprising young gentlemen.
Florence Zankich, leave to each as cares for it my grades in lit. It makes me sick.

CHEER FOR ASTORIA HIGH

Cheer, cheer for Astoria High
Cheer till the echoes reach the sky
Come you fighting fisherman,
Fight and, We know You'll win again.
Don't you falter, don't you stall
Don't let old Salem get that ball
Come you Fishermen fight, fight, fight,
And we'll cheer you with all our might.

ON ASTORIA

On Astoria, on Astoria
Plunge right through that line
Put that ball clear round Hood River
Touchdown, sure this time.
Rah, rah, rah!
On Astoria, on Astoria.
Fight on for her fame
Fight fellows, Fight, Fight, Fight!
We'll win this game.

ALMA MATER

I

Far above Columbia's waters,
With its waves of blue
Stands our noble Alma Mater,
Glorious to view.

(chorus)

Lift the chorus, speed it onward
Praise her to the sky.
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater
Hail Astoria High.

II

Side by side, let's stand together
High her banners hold
Rearing high in pride and glory
Purple and the Gold

(chorus)

Lift the chorus, speed it onward
Praise her to the sky.
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater
Hail Astoria High.
